“Faculty” refers (in keeping with USG BOR policy 3.2.1.1) to all full-time tenured, tenure-track, lecturers, full-time temporary, and part-time teaching faculty, instructors, and certified librarians who comprise the corps of instruction.

“Dalton State College” refers to the sum of the Dalton campus and other off-campus instructional sites unless otherwise specified.

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be named the Faculty Senate of Dalton State College.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose of the Faculty Senate shall be to provide a deliberative means for recommending policy and any changes in policy, except those mandated by the Board of Regents, to the president of the College and to the faculty. The Faculty Senate shall serve as the mechanism for shared governance at the College and shall be responsible for recommending revisions to the Dalton State College Statutes.

As stipulated by section 3.2.4 of the Board of Regents' Policy Manual, the Faculty Senate shall, subject to the approval of the president of the institution,

1. Make statutes, rules, and regulations for its governance and for that of the students;
2. Provide such committees as may be required;
3. Prescribe regulations regarding admission, suspension, expulsion, classes, courses of study, and requirements for graduation; and
4. Make such regulations as may be necessary or proper for the maintenance of high educational standards.

A copy of an institution’s statutes, rules, and regulations made by the faculty shall be filed with the Chancellor. The faculty shall also have primary responsibility for those aspects of student life which relate to the educational process, subject to the approval of the president of the institution.

When there is inconsistency or conflict between the Faculty Senate Bylaws and various governing documents, resolution will be settled by an ad-hoc committee selected by the president of the Faculty Senate or, in cases of a potential conflict of interest, a representative appointed by the president of the college.
ARTICLE III
Members

Section 1. Membership. Membership of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the president of the College as ex-officio chair (per BOR policy 2.5.2), the vice president for academic affairs, and elected senators. The president of the College and the vice president for academic affairs shall be non-voting members.

Section 2. Elected Senators. Any full-time tenured, tenure-track, teaching faculty (including full-time lecturers), or certified librarian not holding a full-time administrative office at Dalton State College shall be eligible for election to the Faculty Senate after his or her third semester of service. Department chairs and deans cannot be senators. Part-time teaching faculty and instructors are not eligible for election to the Faculty Senate. However, part-time teaching faculty and instructors from each department or school may elect a non-voting representative as a member of the Senate.

a. Representation. The Faculty Senate shall be composed of representatives from each academic department or school (when the school has no designated departments). The number of senators per department or school shall be as follows:

i. One senator shall be elected for every 5 full-time faculty members in a department.

ii. One senator shall be elected from the library staff.

One additional at-large senator from each School will be elected from the faculty at the spring faculty meeting.

b. Elections. Departments or schools shall elect senators by secret ballot no later than March 1st of each year. Departments or schools shall elect senators by a plurality of votes cast for nominees. (See the addendum to these bylaws regarding elections for the first year.) Department chairs or deans shall forward the names of elected senators to the president of the Faculty Senate within three working days of the election. The president of the Faculty Senate shall seek nominations for at-large senators at the spring faculty meeting and shall conduct their election by secret ballot at that meeting. The full faculty shall elect senators at-large by a plurality of votes cast for nominees. Terms of service for senators shall begin at the start of the following fall semester.

c. Length of Service. Terms shall be for three years. Departments or schools that have more than one senator shall stagger their terms into three classes so that no more than one class of their senators completes a term of office in a given year. In the event that a department or school increases its number of senators, these academic units are authorized to reduce the term of a newly elected senator to two years in the first year that the unit’s representation increases so as to adhere to this stipulation. In no case, however, shall a term be extended beyond three years. Senators may serve three full consecutive terms, after which they must take at least a one-year absence before they are eligible to serve again.

(See the addendum for charts on terms of service and terms of service for the first year.)
Section 3. Attendance. Elected senators shall attend all meetings of the Senate unless extenuating circumstances prevent attendance. A senator who cannot attend a meeting shall notify an appropriate substitute to serve in place of the absent senator. The substitute shall have full voting privileges.

Section 4. Resignation. When any senator is appointed to a full-time administrative office, that senator’s office is vacated, and a new election to fill that office shall be held. Any senator who is unable or unwilling to perform expected or requested duties shall submit a written resignation to the president of the Faculty Senate.

Section 5. Recall of Senators. Department or school faculty may recall a senator representing their academic unit by a majority vote of that unit’s faculty. The full faculty may recall a senator at-large by a majority vote of the full faculty.

Section 6. Unexpired Terms of Service. In the case of an unexpired term of service for any senator representing a department or school, the department or school shall elect by secret ballot a replacement to fill the remaining senate term. In the case of unexpired terms of service for at-large senators, the president of the Faculty Senate shall seek nominations and conduct an election for these terms by campus mail ballot. Faculty members shall elect replacement at-large senators by a plurality of votes cast for nominees.
